

Description: Introductory study of differential and integral calculus with emphasis on techniques and applications. For students in the biological, management, social and behavioral sciences. 3 I Credit: Meets three hours per week. Meets General Education IVB or IVC.

Prerequisites: High School Algebra II and plane geometry.

interested in applications of math to their majors.

effective communication must be demonstrated in written work.

Writing Across the Curriculum Students will be expected to communicate mathematics and mathematical ideas effectively in speech and writing. At the University Writing Center, trained consultants are ready to help you at any stage of the writing process. In addition to the im-offers another site for learning about writing. All students are encouraged to make use of these important services.

NOTE: Once a student has received credit, including transfer credit, for a course, credit may not be received for any course with material that is equivalent to it or is a prerequisite for it.