

Employee Complaint Resolution

Salisbury University (University) makes every effort to resolve employee complaints internally, using policies and procedures primarily outlined on the University Consolidated Policies of the Board of Regents and the University website, as well as Staff Employee/ Faculty Handbooks. Employees are expected to familiarize themselves and fully utilize any and all administrative policies, procedures and/or resources provided by the University.

The University is committed to the fair and equitable treatment of all employees and encourages employees to bring their work-related concerns forward without fear of reprisal. Prompt reporting, open and honest communication, and timely processing of employees complaint are vital to facilitating an effective resolution.

Guiding Principles

- x The University strives to provide employees with positive work experience by creating a collegial environment in which a satisfactory manner with the faculty, staff, administrator, office, or designated point of contact involved, employees may use the appropriate formal grievance procedure. Employees seeking to file a grievance should contact the Office of Human Resources and or the Office of Institutional Equity, if appropriate. Nothing in these guiding principles prohibits a member o
