created on the Executive Staff level and to get your feedback. She hopes many ideas are brought forth.

- o She stated that she is looking forward to scheduled one-on-one meetings in the coming weeks.
- o Today is the “All Staff Lunch” – please encourage your staff to come out as a great opportunity to reconnect with each other and celebrate that we are about to embark on another successful year.
- o She stated that her first impression of SU was the overwhelming kindness and offers of help she received in her first weeks here. That kindness provides a sense of comfort and hopefully this translates and contributes to the overall general atmosphere, creating a place where parents

- g. As this policy is implemented this semester, suggestions and feedback are valued and welcomed, and improvements can be made. Challenges are inevitable, and changes will be evaluated in an effort to balance safety and ease of access. This forum is a
